ANNOUNCEMENTS & EVENTS

Remembrance Day - 11 November

We must remember! if we do not, the sacrifice of those of thousands Australian lives will be meaningless. They died for us, for their homes and families and friends, for a collection of traditions they cherished and a future they believed in; they died for Australia. The meaning of their sacrifice rests with our collective national consciousness; our future is their monument.

We Remember Them

In the rising of the sun and its going down,

We Remember Them.

In the bowing of the wind and in the chill of winter.

We Remember Them.

In the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring.

We Remember Them.

In the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer.

We Remember Them.

In the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn.

We Remember Them.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends.

We Remember Them.

When we are weary and in need of strength.

We Remember Them.

When we are lost and sick of heart.

We Remember Them.

When we have joys and special celebrations

we yearn to share. We Remember Them.

November - All Souls Month Remembering our Loved Ones

"It is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be released from their sins"

November is the month of the Holy Souls. This is our opportunity to pray for the souls of our departed loved ones. All morning Masses during the month of November will be offered for our departed loved ones mentioned on our special November envelopes. Please place the name of friends and your loved one on these special envelopes.

During the month of November there will be a special display in front of the altar. Envelopes for Mass offerings are available at the back of the Church and can be placed in the 1st or 2nd collection or handed to the priests. Thank you for your prayers and kind support.

November Reflection

It is during November that the Church meditates on the Communion of Saints, which is the charitable link with the faithful who have already reached heaven (Church Triumphant), the faithful departed who are still expiating their sins in Purgatory (Church Suffering) and of the pilgrim faithful here on earth (Church Militant). "In this wonderful exchange, the holiness of one profits others, well beyond the harm that the sin of one could cause others. Thus recourse to the communion of saints lets the contrite sinner be more promptly and efficaciously purified of the punishments for sin." (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1475).

Throughout November the Church prays for all who are in the purifying fires of Purgatory, waiting for the day when they will join the company of the saints in heaven. The celebration of Mass is the highest means the Church can provide for charity for the dead, but we can also relieve their sufferings through our prayers, sufferings and penances. We can also help the Poor Souls by doing acts and prayers that have indulgences attached to them. There are many indulgences, applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory, that can be obtained during the month of November.

The Archbishop's Christmas Appeal for LifeLink

This will be held next weekend on 13/14 November. Please collect your copy of Archbishop Costelloe's letter at Mass this weekend, read his message and please give generously to support the valuable work of our Archdiocesan social service agencies.

You may mail your donation in the reply-paid envelope provided, or return your envelope and donation during a Special Collection at Mass next weekend. You may also donate (securely) online by credit card at www.lifelink.com.au

Preparing through Advent
Thinking about how to prepare spiritually during Advent? The Centre for Life, Marriage and Family produces an annual Advent journal with daily readings, reflections, and contributions from spiritual leaders, these can be purchased online at: <https://CLMFjournal.ecwid.com/>
Alternatively, while the journals are $15 to purchase individually, a discount is available for parish bulk orders and can be collected from our office in Doubleview. Please contact CLMF for more information by email projects.cmf@perthcatholic.org.au or call (08) 92780253
The team at CLMF hope this resource leads people into a deeper reflection of their own personal dignity and the incomparable worth of every human person as they journey with the Magi to find Christ in the manger.
The Centre for Life, Marriage and Family is an agency of the Archdiocese of Perth, commissioned with the mandate of working toward building a Culture of Life, respecting the dignity of each person from conception till death, and to support marriages and families as a means of strengthening the Church and society.
