November - All Souls Month

Remembering Our Loved Ones

"It is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead that may be released from their sins."

November is the month of the Holy Souls. This is our opportunity to pray for the souls of our departed loved ones. All Morning Masses during the month of November will be offered for our departed loved ones mentioned on our special November envelopes. There will be a special display in front of the altar during the month of November. Envelopes for Mass offerings are available at the back of the Church & can be placed in the 1st/2nd Collection bags or handed directly to the priests. Thank you for your prayers and kind support.

All Saints Day - Tuesday 1 November

The Feast Day was instituted to honour all the Saints, according to Urban IV (c.1195 - 1264), to make up for any deficiencies in the faithful's celebration of Saint's feast days during the year. In the early days the Christians were accustomed to solemnize the anniversary of a martyr's death for Christ at the place of martyrdom. In persecution of Diocletian the number of martyrs became so great that a separate day could not be assigned to each. But the Church, feeling that every martyr should be venerated, appointed a common day for all. Gregory IV (827 - 844) extended the celebration on 1 November to the entire Church. The vigil, known as 'Halloween' or Hallows Eve seems to have been held as early as the feast itself.

All Souls Day - Wednesday 2 November

All Souls Day commemorates the faithful departed, those baptised Christians believed to be in purgatory. Purgatory still exists in Church teaching - it is "the state of those who die in God's friendship, assured of their eternal salvation, but who still have need of purification to enter into the happiness of heaven." (Compendium of the Catechism, n. 210). The day purposely follows All Saints Day in order to shift the focus from those heaven to those in purgatory.

Thank you from Fr Darek

Fr Darek would like to express his sincere thanks to all, for the birthday wishes, cards and gifts on the occasion of his birthday.

Prayer For Ukraine

Loving God, we pray for the people of Ukraine, for all those suffering or afraid, that you will be close to them and protect them. We pray for World leaders, for compassion, strength and wisdom to guide their choices. We pray for the world that in this moment of crisis, we may reach out in solidarity to our brothers and sisters in need. May we walk in your ways so that peace and justice become a reality for the people of Ukraine and for all the world. Amen

Pray for your Priest.
And when you visit a priest, please remember...

That a priest isn't married, nor will he have a family of his own. No wife, no children. His family is his parishioners. He is a spiritual father in faith to the community he serves. His future is in celebrating the Eucharist at mass every day, listening to confessions, anointing the sick, serving those who come to him for help. A priest may serve a parish only for a minimum of five to seven years. After that he may be transferred to another parish or assigned a different role in the Church. He relies on his team of volunteers, staff and the lay faithful. Don't expect him to be there all the time for you. When you give money to the Church, you may be surprised to know that the money isn't for him because no priest earns a fixed salary. They receive a stipend to meet their basic expenses of food, clothing and travel. They save every penny to go for a vacation and much of the money is gifted by friends, relatives and well wishers as they don't get paid leave like the rest of us who work. While we work for a fixed amount of hours with two days off a week, priests are expected to be on stand by 24/7. So don't be angry if they don't respond to you when they need them. They are humans as well with the same frailty as us. If you hear anyone speaking badly about a particular priest, please correct that person and don't engage in idle gossip without knowing the facts. Remember that they are alone and at times would need company. Pay attention to their emotional, physical and mental needs. Accompany them if needed or offer a helping hand or even a lift. It's not easy to go out alone at 2 or 3 in the morning especially in dangerous neighbourhoods for counselling or even anointing someone on their death bed. If someone comes to them at such an hour of help, they have to get up from their deep sleep and still be expected to celebrate Mass in the morning. Who is there for them when they are ill or have emergencies in the middle of the night? Yet they are required to perform their duties because if not them, who? Remember their birthdays, ordination anniversaries and important events in their lives. Celebrate with them, cry with them. Offer a shoulder to lean on. If they fall, don't judge or criticize. Lift them up and help them on their journey in life. Don't be offended if they don't live up to your expectations. No priest is perfect. So take care of your priests, remember the ones who baptized, confirmed, married and anointed you. The ones who offer masses for your intentions and pray for you. May God bless our priests in Jesus name, our eternal High Priest. Amen
