ANNOUNCEMENTS & EVENTS

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A - Mt 20:1-16

In today's Gospel, Jesus moves from Galilee to teach in Judea where he is sought out by great crowds and tested by the Pharisees on issues such as marriage and divorce. Jesus also encounters a rich young man who is unable to accept Jesus' demand that he leave his possessions to follow him. Jesus' response to the rich young man sounds very much like the conclusion we will find in today's Gospel: the first will be last and the last will be first. On the surface, the parable of the workers in the vineyard appears to be an offense to common sense. Those who work a longer day ought to be paid more than those who work just an hour or two. When viewed in this way, the landowner seems unfair. That is because we are reading into the parable our own preconceived notions of how fairness and equality should be quantified. A close read shows us that the landowner paid on the terms that were negotiated. The landowner, it seems, has acted completely justly. The parable goes beyond that, however, and we come to see that the landowner is not simply just, he is exceptionally just. He is radically just. He has given those who labored in the field for a full day their due pay. But he has also given a full-day's wage to those who worked only a single hour. No one is cheated, but a few receive abundantly from the landowner just as we receive from God more than what is merely justifiable or due. God, like the landowner, is radically just and abundantly generous. The workers who complain are made to look foolish as they lament the fact that landowner has made all workers equal. Indeed, what more could one ask for than to be treated as an equal at work or anywhere else? The parable reminds us that although God owes us nothing, he offers abundantly and equally. We are occasionally tempted to think that our own actions deserve more reward, more of God's abundant mercy, than the actions of others. But God's generosity cannot be quantified or partitioned into different amounts for different people. When we think that way, we are trying to relate to God on our terms rather than to accept God's radically different ways. (Source: www.loyolapress.com)

109 World Day of Migrants and Refugees - Sunday 24 September

Pope Francis has chosen 'Free to Choose Whether to Migrate or to Stay,' as the theme for the 109th World Day of Migrants and Refugees. On this day we are called to remember the difficult journeys that people have to make, and how it can be to start again in a new country. We also remember the gifts of all the different cultures and how they have enriched our lives in Australia.

FREE TO CHOOSE WHETHER TO MIGRATE OR TO STAY

109TH WORLD DAY OF
MIGRANTS AND REFUGEES

Prayer

God, Father Almighty, grant us the grace to work tirelessly for justice, solidarity and peace, so that all your children may enjoy the freedom to choose whether to migrate or stay.

Grant us the courage to denounce all the horrors of our world, and to combat every injustice that mars the beauty of your children and the harmony of our common home.

Sustain us by the power of your Spirit, so that we can reflect your tender love to every migrant whom you place in our path, and to spread in hearts and in every situation the culture of encounter and of care.

Amen

A Prayer in Times of Disaster
 God with us in light and darkest days -
 We pray for all impacted by earthquakes, floods or other disasters: survivors, displaced people, loved ones, lost ones.
 Where there's life, let there be rescue. Where there's need, let there be care. Where there's loss, let there be consolation.
 We pray for all on the ground, responding with urgency: emergency workers, medics, people donating food and blood.
 Where there's fear, let there be hope. Where there's confusion, let there be clarity. Where there's weariness, let there be rest.
 As we pray for people directly affected, we pray also for ourselves: aware, far-off, watching on.
 Where there's compassion, let there be action. Where there's love, let there be solidarity. Where there's concern, let there be generosity.
 God with us in light and darkest days - hear our prayer. Amen
