ANNOUNCEMENTS & EVENTS

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A - Mt 21:28-32

The context for today's Gospel is the mounting tension between Jesus and the Jewish religious leaders. Jesus has entered Jerusalem and overturned the money changers' tables in the Temple. Jesus has caught the attention of the religious authorities; the chief priests and elders question Jesus about the source of his authority. Jesus refuses to name for these religious leaders the source of his authority. Instead, he questions the priests and elders through the parable we hear in today's Gospel. The answer given by the religious leaders is correct, but it convicts them for their failure to heed the call of John the Baptist and for their inability to recognize the Kingdom of God. The situation Jesus poses is rather straightforward. Given the same task by their father, one son asserts his disobedience in words, but then obeys in his actions; the second son obeys with his words, but disobeys in his actions. The question that Jesus poses is pointed and direct: Which son did what the father wanted? All would agree that "actions speak louder than words" and that even if his words were disobedient, the son who did the work as ordered did the father's will. Jesus' conclusion is also direct. The chief priests and elders, the ones who speak most often about God, did not act accordingly. They did not respond to the message of repentance announced by John the Baptist with a change of heart. Instead, John's message was heeded by those one would not expect to repent—tax collectors, prostitutes, and other sinners. Because of their actions, these sinners will enter the Kingdom of God ahead of the religious leaders. Jesus could ask us the same question. Do our words indicate our obedience to God? If not our words, do our actions? God desires a full conversion of heart, that our actions (and our words as well) will give evidence of our love for God.

October - the Month for Mary and the Holy Rosary

The Mysteries of the Holy Rosary are designed to help focus our prayer on the life, ministry and Passion of Our Lord. Pope Pius XII described the rosary prayer as "the compendium of the entire Gospel." There are four rosary mysteries (Joyful, Sorrowful, Glorious and Luminous) and five parts of each mystery which correspond to the five decades of the Rosary. It is recommended that you meditate on mysteries of the rosary based upon the days of the week. This method was recommended to the faithful by Pope St John Paul II. Meditating on the life of Christ with the prayers of the Holy Rosary through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary - is a sure way of growing in faith and in your understanding of the faith, deepening your relationship with Christ, increasing in holiness and virtue, and avoiding sin.

- The Joyful Mysteries (suggested to be prayed on Monday and Saturday): focus on the joyful events related to the Incarnation of Jesus Christ.
- The Sorrowful Mysteries (suggested to be prayed on Tuesday and Friday): focus on the events related to the Passion and Death of Jesus Christ.
- The Glorious Mysteries (suggested to be prayed on Wednesday and Sunday): focus on the glorious events related to the Resurrection and the reigning of Christ in heaven with our Lady.
- The Luminous Mysteries (suggested to be prayed on Thursday): focus on the life and ministry of Jesus Christ.

Make the month of October a special one by Praying the Rosary.

Eucharistic Adoration

Prayer for the World
 Lord, our Father, the beautiful and harmonious world that You have created for Your children has strayed so far from Your dream. Wars and divisions are still present, and are often caused and maintained only because of money. The arms trade is one of the main reasons for the prolongation of these wars, so often supported by rulers themselves. Lord, touch the hearts of the rulers, blinded by the arms trade, and may they consider the consequences of their greed: the destruction and death of so many innocents. Convert our hearts to the peace and good of every human being. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen
