ANNOUNCEMENTS & EVENTS

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time; Year B - Mark 4:35-41

As we continue in Ordinary Time, our reading today is taken from the Gospel of Mark, the primary Gospel reading in Lectionary Cycle B. Mark's Gospel presents a vivid portrait of Jesus, whose words and deeds show that he is the Son of God. Today's Gospel describes the end of a day of teaching in Jesus' ministry. Jesus taught the crowd in parables and then offered explanations of these parables to his disciples. Jesus then led his disciples away from the crowds and into the boats that they will use to cross the Sea of Galilee. The sea and its surrounding area are the settings for Jesus' teachings and miracles in this part of Mark's Gospel. Today's reading describes how Jesus calmed a storm at sea. It is the first of four miracles that are presented in sequence at this point in Mark's Gospel. As is typical in Mark's Gospel, Jesus' disciples are frightened by the sudden storm; they do little to inspire confidence in the reader. Mark notes the contrast between the disciples' terror and Jesus' peace. Jesus is sleeping, untroubled by what is going on around him. The disciples' words to Jesus are telling. They are familiar enough with Jesus to dare to wake him. Their words to him are words of reproach, questioning his care for them. A careful reader might wonder what the disciples expected Jesus to do. Are they more troubled by the storm or by Jesus' inattentiveness to their needs? How many of us have chided a family member or friend for not agreeing with our assessment of the severity of a situation? Today's Gospel offers evidence of Jesus' power and authority as he calms the storm. In his day, power over nature was believed to be a sign of divinity—only God calms storms. Jesus' rebuke of the storm also echoes the rebuke he uses when he talks to and expels demons. In each situation, Jesus' power and authority is a sign of his divinity. Indeed, the disciples are left wondering about Jesus' identity at the conclusion of today's Gospel. They see before them a human being who acts with the authority and power of God. The disciples' uncertainty about Jesus' identity is a recurring theme in Mark's Gospel. This Gospel is a metaphor for our lives. We are in the boat, the storms of life are raging around us, and like the disciples, we may believe that Jesus is unconcerned, or "sleeping." We hope that we will be as familiar with Jesus as his disciples. If we feel that Jesus is sleeping, are we comfortable enough to wake Jesus and present him with our needs? Jesus does not chide his disciples for waking him. Instead he chides them for their lack of faith, for their lack of perspective. When we bring our worries to God in prayer, we might just begin to learn to see things from God's perspective.

Annual Salvatorian Appeal Weekend - 22/23 June

It is tradition that all parishes where Salvatorian Fathers work, once a year, financially support the vocations in the seminaries in Poland and Australia. On this occasion we welcome Fr George Kolodziej, SDS, Superior of the Salvatorians in Australia who will be our guest speaker at all Masses followed by a short video presentation after the homily.

A special collection will be taken for the education of future Salvatorian priests. Special envelopes will be provided on all pews. On behalf of all Salvatorian Fathers & Seminarians we thank you for your generosity. May God bless you abundantly.

Prayer for Vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life

O Loving and Gracious God, Father of all. You bless your people in every time and season and provide for their needs through Your providential care. Your Church is continually in need of Priests, Sisters and Brothers who offer themselves in the service of the Gospel, by lives of dedicated love. Open the hearts of Your sons and daughters to listen to Your call in their lives. Give them the courage to follow Your call. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Baptisms

Welcome to Cooper John Creech who is being baptised this weekend into our Parish family.

Solemnity of the Nativity of St John the Baptist - Monday 24 June

Jesus call John the greatest of all those who had preceded him: "I tell you, among those born of women, no one is greater than John..." John spent his time in the desert as an ascetic. He began to announce the coming of the Kingdom, and to call everyone. His purpose was to prepare the way for Jesus. His Baptism, he said, was for repentance. But One would come who would baptize with the Holy Spirit and fire. John is not worthy even to carry His sandals. His attitude towards Jesus was "He must increase, I must decrease" (John 3:30). John was humbled to find among the crowd of sinners who came to be baptised the One whom he already knew to be the Messiah. "I need to be baptised by you" (Matthew 3:14b). But Jesus insisted, "Allow it for now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfil all righteousness" (Matthew 3:15b). Jesus, true and humble human as well as eternal God, was eager to do what was required of any good Jew. John thus publicly entered the community of those awaiting the Messiah. But making himself part of that community, he made it truly messianic. John attracted countless people ("all Judea") to the banks of the Jordan, and it occurred to some people that he might be the Messiah. But he constantly deferred to Jesus, even to sending away some of his followers to become the first disciples of Jesus. John himself would share in the pattern of messianic suffering, losing his life to the revenge of Herodias.

In Loving Memory

Our condolences to Maureen Appleton and family on the recent passing of her husband Steven Appleton. The Requiem Funeral Mass for Steven will be Thursday 27 June at 11am here at St Andrew's Parish.

Please keep the repose of his soul and the grieving family in your prayers.

*Eternal Rest grant unto him, O Lord,
And let perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in Peace. Amen.*
